

The Evening Bulletin.

Issued every Afternoon Except Sunday, from 609 King Street.

J. T. STACKER, EDITOR.

THURSDAY, MAY, 16, 1895.

For reasons which are not necessary to state in detail here, the Daily Bulletin Publishing Company suspended its newspaper yesterday afternoon. In substance the mortgagee wanted a settlement of his claim, and the owners of the newspaper were given until to-day to raise the necessary funds, failing in which the mortgage would be foreclosed. The money was not raised and the Bulletin Publishing Co., Ltd, is dead.

In consideration of the transfer to him of the advertising and subscription lists, Mr. B. L. Finney, former business manager of the Bulletin Publishing Company, relinquished his claim for wages against the company and proposes to carry out in the EVENING BULLETIN, of which he is proprietor, whatever contracts advertisers may have with the old company, collecting for the service only what may be due from this date.

The management of the EVENING BULLETIN believes there is a field in the islands for two afternoon dailies; it believes that the sentiments of the people should have a channel through which they may be expressed freely, and, it believes this could not be done satisfactorily if there was but one afternoon daily.

In politics this paper will support the present form of Government and with that end in view it has no affiliations with the supporters of any doctrines tending toward a monarchical form of Government in the Hawaiian Islands; it will maintain, that an independent republic is best suited to the interests of the people.

It will oppose the unlimited immigration of Asiatics except in so far as they are to be used as laborers in the field, and it will encourage and support the passage of any laws which will compel Asiatics to return to their native land at the termination of their contracts and thus keep this element from competing with whites and natives in other lines of trade. It will advance the interests of the people who are producing coffee with a view to making that staple a leading industry of the islands. It will encourage improvements of a public character on the other islands and insist upon a proportionate distribution of the public funds for that purpose.

The EVENING BULLETIN is not pledged to support the claims of any individual, sect or party—it stands, as the baby in journalism here, absolutely unfettered by obligations to anyone of any character whatsoever. It does not propose to antagonise the officials of the Republic of Hawaii unless by publishing what it believes to be a fair criticism of their public acts. The proprietor has no private axe to grind and the paper will be conducted free from personalities and without the free flow of mud which often characterizes a newspaper.

The management asks the support of the people, believing they will get full value for any courtesies they may extend. It is intended that the EVENING BULLETIN shall be a journal upon which its readers may depend for reliable news.

The EVENING BULLETIN will be printed for the present by the Hawaiian Gazette Co., Merchant street, and will be issued from the office of the proprietor on King near Fort, next Williams' Furniture Store. The paper has no connection with the Gazette Co., merely being printed there through motives of economy.

Just so long as the health of the community is not jeopardized by the acts of a newspaper reporter every facility should be accorded him to obtain the news. Mr. Frank Hoogs made a very sound kick to the Board of Health yesterday against the treatment he received at the hands of employees of the board on the arrival of the Gaelic a few days ago. His proposition to the body is printed in another column and should be accepted without delay. The reporters for the daily papers here have as much at stake regarding health as anyone else and it is not probable they will take more than ordinary chances in getting news for their respective newspapers.

The editor of the late Daily Bulletin was refused admission to the Australia on her last trip and for what reason the Quartermaster was at a loss to say. It was only when an officer saw the ludicrous side of the matter that he was allowed to go abroad and transact his business.

The public wants the news promptly, and, where a vessel is not absolutely quarantined these men should be allowed to visit it for the purpose of obtaining information that will be of interest to the people.

The soldiers in the Government Barracks are being made to understand the difference between the system carried out heretofore and that in vogue in thoroughly disciplined armies. The old go-as-you-please methods have been buried and the men are obliged now to follow the same programme adopted by the United States Army. It may have the effect of bringing the men up to a better standard of proficiency in soldiery matters, but it is more likely to impress the men with the fact that the position is not such a good thing after all.

Deputy Marshal Brown has asked that he be permitted to prescribe a limit in which Japanese prostitutes may be allowed to reside and carry on their vocation. We endorse this application and suggest Bird Island as the most fitting place. If these people prefer Honolulu the publication of the names of owners of property leased to this class of citizens would be interesting reading.

The esteem in which the people hold Queen Victoria is sufficient reason for making her birthday anniversary on the 24th inst. a memorable one.

Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a siege of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriam's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes especial pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

ROOMS AND BOARD.

Rooms and board for a few persons can be had at Honolulu, on the West side of the city.

W. E. BARNETT, Proprietor.

Homing Pigeons.

Hon. Joseph Marsden, who has taken a great interest in homing pigeons and who has done much in the way of encouraging their importation and breeding intends asking Marshal Hitchcock to secure pairs of the birds from the Gazette Office and have them properly trained for service between the various Islands. Mr. Marsden states that the birds are now successfully flown across the channels and believes there is no reason, if the birds are given proper treatment, why they should not, in a measure, take the place of a cable for ordinary business and shipping purposes. He imported birds of a very fine strain for Mr. Whitney, formerly of the Gazette Co., but they have been allowed to roam about so much that it is hard to find the young birds.

If pigeon homing can be made a perfect success in other countries it could be made at least a partial success here where the strong winds is the only obstacle in the way of a thorough and complete pigeon service between the islands.

Havana Flats

is the latest novelty in cigars. This is a perfectly flat cigar. The filler is Havana of a very high grade and laid in, like the sheets of a book, in the same way as cigars that cost $150.00 per thousand. The outside appearance of the cigar conforms to the filler, and is perfectly flat. Those of our cigar customers who have sampled them pronounce the Havana Flats of excellent quality and of unique and attractive shape.

Havana Cigars

by reason of their superior quality and name are usually sold at high prices. We have an excellent line of these cigars direct from Havana. While the quality of these cigars is at the top-notch our prices have been scaled down to bring these popular cigars within the reach of all.

Manila Cigars

need very little said in their praise, for they are well known here to every smoker. It would be difficult to get a better cigar for the price at which Manilas are sold. We allow no one to undersell us in this line. We compete with any nationality. Remember that when looking for Manila Cigars.
